

COMMUNITY NEWS

January's front page illustrates the range of activities in Grafton Parish for residents of all ages from babies and toddlers upwards. Many of these activities would not take place without the generosity of volunteers giving their time and energy and our Parish would certainly be a poorer place without them. One of our best has been recognised in the Queen's New Year honours list - congratulations to East Grafton resident June Pearson who receives an MBE for her services to the community in Devon and Wiltshire.

This month's edition also has news about many local services, including police, electricity, buses, waste and an important update about the future at Great Bedwyn Surgery. It is a measure of how reliant we are on the internet and social media that almost all items refer us to websites and facebook pages for more information. If you have a neighbour who may not have the knowledge or means to keep in touch in this way why not pop in and see if you can help?

Our very best wishes for 2016 to everyone.

Youth Activities – exciting trips and activities

A fun time was had in December Ten Pin Bowling – the plan had been ice skating but the rink was unexpectedly closed, though secretly some preferred to be bowling! Self-defence training was postponed as so many other Christmas things were happening that evening. The guys from Impact Martial Arts were very understanding and will happily do another session later in the year. Earlier this month Grafton's young people will have let loose their creative talents at the clay sculpting session led by Heloise Tofts.

Grafton Youth Activities is now a partner for Spice Time Credits - a system which allows young people to earn an hours credit for each hour of volunteering they do and then spend their credits on activities of their choice. Volunteering means doing something for someone else, some of the ideas bubbling around are helping with the litter pick, visiting and helping out some of the elderly Grafton residents and using a youth activities session to cook a meal for parents to come and enjoy. Plans for an evening of cooking for March are underway - and Time Credits will be earned at the same time.

Dates for Spring 2016 - put in your diaries and let your friends know

Parent volunteers and helpers

We're building our parent volunteer group and can still benefit from more! Why not experience what's involved and come along to a session and take a look. The more volunteers we have, the more we can arrange and accommodate. Further news will be posted on www.graftonparish.com, Grafton Parish Community News facebook page and via our developing network. Please contact youthactivities@graftonparish.com or Karen.brown@wiltshire.gov.uk or 07795 665756 if you have questions or want more details.

Important note about defibrillators We are fortunate to have defibrillators in each of our parish villages. Make sure you know where your nearest defibrillator is located so that you can easily find it in an emergency. They are easily accessible and not behind locked gates or inside buildings. You simply need a code for the cabinet which is given when you call 999. East Grafton - next to the kitchen door on the right hand side of the Coronation Hall. Wilton - in the phone box opposite The Swan. Wexcombe - in the Lower Farm Yard on the Brooder House. Marten - main yard at the Manor. West Grafton - Mayfield B&B.

Consultation on the closure of Everleigh Recycling Centre

Well done to everyone who managed to get to Everleigh on Friday 8 January to take part in the (very limited) consultation on the closure of the site. We watch carefully to see what happens next ...

Our Doctor Writes

First of all a happy and hopefully healthy New Year to you all! I crave your indulgence for this piece to be about me. It is without doubt the most difficult I have written.

At the end of the December "Our Doctor Writes" I promised to explain a little more about what the future may hold for me and the surgery. Before getting to that though I would like to take this opportunity to put on record how much moving to Bedwyn and taking over the responsibility for the surgery from Dr Jeremy Ross-Mawer back in 1995 has meant to me. In the last 21 years I've made many, many friends and had the privilege of being part of a practice team that has managed to deliver up to the minute state of the art General Practice in a style that has felt more like a throwback to Dr Finlay! The whole venture would not have been possible without an extraordinary group of people to work with and a genuine feeling that our patients are all part of our extended team.

From the first year that I came to Bedwyn I've also had another professional life with the Royal College of GPs. First of all this was as an examiner. I did this partly because I felt it was important to do to make sure that the doctors of tomorrow had the most appropriate hurdles to jump in order to become safe and effective GPs and continue to be the bedrock of our NHS. I became more involved in the exam and became responsible for running the embryonic test of consulting skills, which is now sat by every prospective GP. From this I learned that by being part of setting the test there was an opportunity to drive the learning of a whole generation of our future doctors. However just driving this learning and shaping General Practice in this way wasn't enough. I was persuaded to stand in our national ballot of GPs for the Council of our Royal College and now I've been returned for my 4th three year term. I was also persuaded to stand to be one of the two Vice Chairs of our College with a remit for the wider relations with the NHS and our society and I was elected to do this two years ago. This is why I have been away from the surgery so much (and I must say now I've often felt really uncomfortable to be away!).

In the spring I will be standing to be Chair of our College and if successful will have the privilege of leading our profession in the area of quality and standards in health care. Needless to say this is a virtually full time post. It is essential to me that throughout this period the service that we deliver in Bedwyn remains on a secure and safe footing. With this in mind to ensure that there is absolutely secure succession planning we are currently advertising for my replacement at the surgery in order to find the best person to help and support Dr Angela Paddon and the rest of our team for the future.

If successful in the election in the spring I will need a practice in which to keep seeing patients. I can't think of a better place than Bedwyn to do this but I will be an occasional visitor. The show will belong to Angela.

So, no more rumours. Much Love,

Dr Tim Ballard

Great Bedwyn Surgery has confirmed that they will no longer accept returned medication for onward transmission to Africa due to changes in the regulation of medicine. As returned medication will not be re-used and costs rise we all need to do our bit to ensure that wastage is kept to a minimum. Can you help the surgery to increase efficiency?

- Check your repeat dispensing slip. Let the surgery know if there are items on there that you no longer use.
- Don't stockpile medication or order everything on your list. Only order what you genuinely need.
- Make time for annual reviews if you are asthmatic, diabetic etc, as this is an opportunity to review medication.
- Call after 10.30am when the phones are less busy to request repeat prescriptions and give 2 working days to process. Use System Online, the online ordering system, if you can.

Consultation on the cost of policing

Our Police and Crime Commissioner, Angus MacPherson, has begun a public consultation on the cost of policing in 2016 -17. An increase of £3.12 per year or 6p per week for the average home (Band D property) is being considered to help cover rising costs.

The consultation runs until Tuesday 2 February 2016. Further information is available on www.wiltshire-pcc.gov.uk and feedback can be given through the website.

Power Cuts - Are you a priority customer for your electricity supply?

Scottish & Southern Electric (SSE) run a scheme called Priority Services Register which is a free service and exists to help you at the time of a power outage. To be eligible, firstly it doesn't matter which power company you have your electricity bill from - SSE will still provide this service free of charge and qualification is not means tested either. If you receive a state pension; have a young baby; have communication needs for example if you are blind, partially sighted, deaf or hard of hearing; are dependent on electricity for home medical care (e.g. kidney dialysis); have a chronic illness or short term medical condition; are at home recovering from a major operation or are disabled - you will qualify for this priority service. SSE are happy also to discuss other situations that may need priority help, so please contact them if you think you would benefit.

To register just call 0800 294 3259 or 0345 072 1900 from a mobile or go to www.ssepd.co.uk/PriorityServicesRegister/

Forestry Commission Event - Pasty and a Pint

The North Wessex Downs AONB is calling all foresters and woodland owners who would appreciate advice. The Forestry Commission is hosting informal evening events to discuss the grants available and the kinds of projects they might support. This will include information on LEADER funding plus a pasty and a pint - Thursday 28 January 6.30pm Bruce Arms, Pewsey, near Marlborough, Wiltshire, SN9 5LR. The event is free and you can book on line at www.forestry.gov.uk/forestry/bee-h-a2mjc7.

Housekeeper needed

Sunflowers at Grafton has a busy nursery and out-of-school clubs. Established in 2011 we are a community business and registered charity. We operate close to capacity, looking after 40+ children each day, and are one of the largest employers in the parish. We all work hard to make sure that our children have lots of fun and the very best care.

Join our team to take care of essential housekeeping activities, including managing our kitchen and keeping a daily eye on the building, supplies and cleaning. The majority of the role is kitchen based - serving and clearing away lunches for up to 40 babies and children between 11am and 1pm and, at tea time, making, serving and clearing tea for up to 30 children.

Relevant catering or food background would be fantastic but what really matters is a keen interest in the provision of good, healthy food, that you are a good cook and enjoy the routines of housekeeping. As you might imagine it can get a bit hectic so you need to be pretty unflappable. It also helps to enjoy the company of children!

Between 4 and 6 hours per day over lunch and tea times. Rate of pay dependent on experience.

Contact Sue or Alison on 01672 810478 or admin@sunflowers-grafton.co.uk for further details and an application form.

Sunflowers at Grafton is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. References, enhanced DBS checks and evidence of the right to work in the UK are essential.
